The Lord Provost opens the doors to the city with a giant key, celebrating the launch of the Glasgow Doors Open Days Festival 2017 programme on Monday 21st May at 10am.

Glasgow Doors Open Days Festival is an annual event celebrating the city's architecture, culture and heritage through a free programme of over 200 open buildings and events and which will take place 11-17th September 2017.

This year's history, heritage and archaeology themed programme will welcome visitors behind the scenes to explore some of Glasgow's iconic historic buildings as well as working factories, breweries, theatres and more. The programme also features walks, talks, tours, exhibitions, concerts, special events and children's activities, giving visitors the chance to learn more about the city and to see buildings brought to life.

The 2017 programme is now live and available to view online. Printed brochures are available from all libraries in Glasgow, and other pick-up points. All events are free to attend however some require booking in advance. Bookings will open at 10am Wednesday 23rd August, tickets sell out fast.

Glasgow Building Preservation Trust has been raising the funds to organise and coordinate Glasgow Doors Open Days Festival since it began in 1990 as part of the City of Culture celebrations. Doors Open Days is coordinated nationally by the Scottish Civic Trust and runs throughout Scotland every September as part of European Heritage Days. Glasgow Doors Open Days Festival 2017 is part of Festival of Architecture 2017 which also happens across Scotland in September.
